

Movie premiere slated for Helena

By Associated Press - 06/04/09

The Montana Department of Commerce says a movie titled "Call of the Wild 3D," starring Christopher Lloyd, will premiere in Helena.

The movie was filmed two years ago in Helena, Lincoln, and Phillipsburg. It is a retelling of Jack London's classic novel, "Call of the Wild."

Lloyd will be on hand for the invitation-only June 11 opening. The film will open statewide June 12.

The Cinemark theater in Helena said it bought the latest 3-D equipment to feature the film.

The movie directed by Richard Gabal centers on a young Montana girl who attracts the attention of an evil stranger after she rescues an injured wolf.

Current rating: 4.1 with 8 ratings.
